

Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts

The Headmaster has been elected as a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts in recognition of his contribution to independent education and science learning over a number of years. This honour follows his election as a Fellow of the College of Teachers and a recent invitation to become a Fellow of the Society of Biology. A Chartered Biologist by background, specialising in great ape conservation, Mr. Wood has worked within the independent and maintained sectors of education for twenty years, and has been responsible for introducing innovations within conservation education, science education and sports coaching. Since May 2008, Mr Wood has served as the ISA Midlands Area Coordinator; as well as being a Director of the ISA, he serves on the ISA's Executive Council and the Membership Committee.
